

EDITORIAL

Greetings from Editorial team,

This is the last issue of BJKines-NJBAS for year 2017.

Guru - shishya parampara is changing. Today it is facilitator and learner and needs are changed. At the same time we are all catering to human health. This needs sensitivity and humane approach.

Keeping in view the stress, anxiety and communication difficulties in today's time both at teachers end and at students, Dr. Minakshi Parikh, Professor and Head of Psychiatry has been invited as guest editor.

Wishing everyone a very knowledgeable 2018.
